SCORING METHODOLOGY

The scoring team for this RFP is comprised of select subject matter experts. The scoring team may be supported at various times during the evaluation by a panel of non-scoring subject matter experts. The scoring team will be required to independently review the proposal(s). The team will then convene and discuss the proposal(s) as it relates to the requirements listed in the RFP and come to a consensus score for each proposal. Any individual scores or notes developed outside the consensus scoring meetings are deemed draft and will be destroyed upon development of the final consensus score. The team is chaired by the assigned Procurement Officer. The team will meet several times over a period of weeks in order to make final recommendations.

ASSIGNMENT OF POINTS:

| | Max Points |
|---|---|
| METHOD of APPROACH NARRATIVE PROPOSAL | 425 |
| PROPOSED COST PROPOSAL | 375 |
| EXPERIENCE AND EXPERTISE NARRATIVE PROPOSAL | 200 |
| TOTAL MAX POINT | 1000 |

METHOD OF APPROACH

The maximum points available for this category is 425. Submission requirements considered in this category include the Offeror's narrative of its proposed methodology to carry out the scope and information presented and discussed during the Offeror's demonstration/presentation if applicable.

COST PROPOSAL SCORING

The maximum points available for this category is 375. Each Offeror will submit its discounted Wholesale Acquisition Cost (WAC). AHCCCS will apply the proposed cost to past utilization to determine the total overall cost. This amount will be compared by a relative scaled score. (Lowest Overall Cost ÷ Proposed Overall Cost) x Max Points = Awarded Points.

EXPERIENCE AND EXPERTISE

The maximum points available for this category is 200. Submission requirements considered in this category include the Offerors' narrative of their experience and expertise including narrative submission of the key staff designated and dedicated to the provision of services.

Note:

This scoring methodology applies to proposals that are evaluated by the scoring team and excludes those determined to be not susceptible for award or rejected. At any point prior to being submitted to the scoring team for evaluation, or during the scoring evaluation process, a proposal may be determined not susceptible for award and/or rejected in accordance with the RFP and/or applicable procurement rules, regulations, or policies, at which point the evaluation of the proposal shall end.
